L & J Moving and Storage signs 5 year agreement with northAmerican® Van Lines

L & J Moving and Storage, a Berks County Pennsylvania based Transportation Company, announces a new business partnership with northAmerican® Van Lines. NorthAmerican Van Lines (NAVL) is a leader in the household goods moving industry for over 75 years. L & J Moving and Storage will service Berks County as well as all surrounding counties including suburban Philadelphia.

“We are looking forward to a long and mutually beneficial relationship. This move will allow us to increase our capacity and presence in a growing market. Moving people’s belongings is a very personal thing, having a trusted name like northAmerican® to partner with is a great accomplishment. ” Says James Fry CEO of L & J. “In addition to more strength in the local markets this partnership allows us to offer many relocation options to our corporate clients including real estate assistance, financing, and other attractive cost saving benefits.”

L & J has a fleet of logistics and household goods trucks that travel throughout the United States. L & J now has the capability to move goods around the corner or around the world with the same great level of service.
